Campus Day and Awards Day of NIA Educational Institutions were celebrated on 08-10-2018. Mr. lakoka N. Subramaniam, Chairman, Franstek Belts Pvt. LTD, Goa was the Chief Guest of the occasion. Dr.C.Ramaswamy, Secretary, NIA Educational Institutions welcomed the gathering that Campus Day and Awards Day this year, becomes more significant as it falls in the Diamond Jubilee Year. Dr.M.Manickam, Chairman, NIA Educational Institutions delivered the presidential address and informed that NIA students have crossed borders and achieved everywhere in the world by pointing out that no one knows from where talent emerges. Mr.M.Harihara Sudhan, Correspondent, NIA Educational Institutions felicitated the gathering and introduced an MCET alumnus, Mr.Jayendra H. Mehta, who studied Mechanical Engineering in MCET and completed asters in Automobile Engineering and two of his products.

Mr. lakoka N. Subramaniam, Chairman, Franstek Belts Pvt. LTD, Goa, delivered the chief-guest address. He insisted that it's the values that was introduced to us that keeps us humans and cited the example of Arutchelvar who although was a versatile personality, held on to his values and discipline till his last breath. He ascertained that it's not in gathering wealth but in giving back to the society that would display one's greatness. He requested people to come out of luxurious living and live a simple life. He requested the students to document whatever they do as they would become the evidences of their progress in the future. He told that almost all the imported items are luxurious items that would spoil the health and reminded the gathering that one shouldn't forget one's identity. He told that marks won't determine one's success, so, one should focus on what one likes and what one wants in order to succeed. He insisted that it's only our value system that would win one day and requested the students to come out of the clutches of false ideologies that would make them dysfunctional and narrow minded.

Mr. K. Balasubramanian, President Emeritus, NAPAA, briefed on the Technical Expo. He informed the gathering that NAPAA is very proud to arrange this expo to mark the Diamond Jubilee Celebrations. He shared his experience as an Alumni, President of NAPAA and today, as the President Emeritus. He appreciated all those who agreed and exhibited their products because it would motivate more number of people than mere words would do. He expressed his gratitude to the management by stating that it's their support and guidance that has helped them achieve this height.

As part of the Awards distribution, 11 gold coins, 20 gold medals, 126 cash awards worth 19, 82, 000 rupees were given to the meritorious students. Dr. Ranga Palanisamy, Director Student Affairs proposed the vote of thanks and with that the function came to a closure.

Hon'ble Vice President of India Shri. M. Venkaiah Naidu greets our alumni Mr.V.Thiyagarajan for his generous contribution towards NAPAA.

Valedictory Function, 10th October 2018

Vice-President Shri. M. Venkaiah Naidu expressed his happiness and appreciation to the management for such a wonderful opportunity. He pointed out that Dr. N. Mahalingam is one of the most inspiring and influential person even in his life. It was because of his ideal life that he was able to build this empire without compromising on his principles. He has initiated lots of things and tried new ways of doing things and succeeded thus remaining an example for others in the country.

He told that Arutchelvar was trying to develop the rural areas because he knew that development starts from villages as Gandhi rightly told that villages are the backbones of India.

He pointed out the importance of bridging the skill gap both for the students and the teachers. He informed the gathering that it's time to redefine the curriculum, train the teachers and make the students employable. He requested all to respect five things in life such as, Mother, Family, Birth Place, Mother Tongue and Nature.

He pointed out few disasters that affected the country due to human negligence on nature. He reminded the gathering that he followed two things in life, hard work and following the same ideology that helped him become the Vice-President of India. He reminded the gathering that one should take care of one's health because when health is lost everything is lost. When one is healthy, one can work hard and earn wealth. He appreciated the core values of the institution and thanked for the opportunity.
